

When you approach a pedestrian crossing line and there are pedestrians waiting to cross the road you should

Hazard perception is the activity which talks about

Head check is important while changing lane because

As a safe driver you should

If you see an Ambulance coming behind you while you driving, What you will do?

You should be very careful while driving near school because

What is the speed limit in parking area or service roads

What is the safest distance from the vehicle in front of you in normal traffic?

Why you should avoid using phone while driving because?

The most important thing you need to take care during foggy weather?

When the driver dealing with intersections and approaches crossroads controlled by traffic lights, he has to comply with the following:

What are the things that cause low concentration while driving?

The following risky driving behaviors are prohibited while driving a vehicle

If you want to turn right what signal will do for other road users?

Give Way to pedestrians and allow to cross the road

Identify the possible risk or dangers in the road scene around you

To see what is in your blind spot and act accordingly

Stay away from all types of distractions

I will give way to Ambulance vehicle

Kids will cross the road without looking properly

25 KMPH

2 seconds

It will cause distraction, driving requires full attention

Turn on fog light and low beam headlights

Stop the vehicle when the red light goes on and reduce the speed when approaching the intersections and crossroads

Both options are correct

Both Options Are Correct

Use right indicator